11AM WORSHIP SERVICE

Call To Worship

Through the hands of the apostles, many signs and wonders were done among the people. Day by day, believers in the Lord were added, great numbers of both men and women.

If this work is of God, nothing can overthrow it.

Let us gather in faith and joy, knowing that God's power is among us.

Come, let us worship the living God!

Call To Confession

When the apostles spoke the truth, some were enraged—yet God raised up voices of wisdom and mercy.

We come now, not to resist God's work in us,
but to yield to God's renewing Spirit.
Let us confess our sin before the One who makes all things new.

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have often resisted the movements of your Spirit.

We have trusted our own plans more than your power, and have been slow to recognize the signs of your presence.

Forgive us when fear causes us to silence your truth, or when pride blinds us to the works you are doing in our midst.

Turn our hearts to you, that we may rejoice in your wonders, welcome your healing, and follow wherever Christ leads us.

Amen.

1 Corinthians 3:1-11

3 And so, brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. 2 I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, 3 for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations? 4 For when one says, "I belong to Paul," and another, "I belong to Apollos," are you not merely human?

5 What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. 6 I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. 7 So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. 8 The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each.

9 For we are God's servants, working together; you are God's field, God's building.

10 According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. 11 For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.
